

For more than 50 years, Becker Professional Education, a global leader in exam review and continuing education, has helped nearly a half million accounting, finance and project management professionals advance their careers and achieve success.