

Ralcorp Holdings, Inc.

Ralcorp Holdings, Inc. is the leading producer of a variety of value brand and store brand foods sold under the individual labels of various grocery, mass merchandise and drugstore retailers, and frozen bakery products sold to in-store bakeries, restaurants and other foodservice customers. Through the acquisition of Post Cereals, Ralcorp is now also a leading producer of branded cereals. We have emerged as a solid and powerful organization focusing on newly energized and highly motivated teams. Today we also emerge with a heightened commitment to expand our presence through new product development and through the acquisition of allied store brand businesses. Through operations in over thirty plants within the United States and Canada we employ over 9,000 people with sales over $3 billion. Every location offers an environment that values each of its employees!
